SHIPPING NOTES.
The steamer C. R. Bishop brought 12 deck passengers this morning.
The steamer Akamai, after going through a series of cleaning, painting, etc., is now alongside the old Custom house wharf receiving coal. She will proceed for Lahaina and Molokai at 2 p. m. today.
The new Am bark Albert, Capt. Wind-ling, arrived yesterday from San Rosalie, making the run of 20 days from port to port. She is a beauty, and is now lying in the stream. She came in ballast.
The bkine W. H. Diamond, Capt. Drew, set sail for San Francisco this morning, taking away 13,086 bags sugar, 1855 bags rice and 100 barrels tallow from the following consignees: W. G. Irwin & Co., 521 b. sugar; H. A. Wildman, 2775 bags sugar; C. T. Spruill, 30 bags sugar; F. F. Porter, 100 barrels tallow; Sing & Hong & Co., 1735 bags rice; M. S. Grimbaum & Co., 850 bags rice.
In reviewing the foreign arrivals for the year 1890, we find the following figures: American, 208; English, 24; Hawaiian, 44; German, 8; French, 2; Japanese, 5; other nationalities, 4.

LARGE SALE.

Word has been received in Honolulu of a large sale of plantation stock, which lately took place in San Francisco. The sale referred to was two shares out of fourteen of the stock of the Lihue plantation, situated on the island of Kauai, made by Hon. Charles R. Bishop to Hon.
Paul Isenberg. The sale took place in San Francisco as mentioned.
The amount for which the two shares were sold, $200,000, is commented upon on the streets as being a large price. At the same rate the plantation would bring $1,400,000. The financial circumstances of the parties to the sale are an evidence of confidence in the country at the opening of the New Year, in spite of unfavorable tariff legislation in the United States and the dismal croakings of disappointed politicians at home.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all.

No BULLETIN to-morrow.

THE U. S. S. Mohican is again in port.Mr. L. B. KERR gives notice that Mr. A. Vogel is no longer in his employ.TICKET No. 10 drew the watch in the California Watch Club drawing yesterday.Messrs. Hollister & Co. are distributing elegant glass paper-weight calendars.Justice Wilcox fined three persons for drunkenness in the Police Court this morning.OFFICIAL flags are flying, and a royal salute was fired at noon, in honor of Her Majesty's birthday.THE O. R. & L. Co. have a New Year's excursion announcement in another column at popular rates.THE Hawaiian News Company has issued a handy memorandum calendar for the year 1891, which will be distributed with the compliments of the company.THE Planter's Monthly for December is out and, as usual, is filled with interesting matter in its department.
The editor announces that with the December number closes the ninth volume of the monthly.THE next monthly meeting of the Board of Representatives to the Ho-lulu Fire Department has been postponed to to-morrow evening to Thursday evening, January 8th, at the usual time and place.C. W. ASHFORD has been retained by John E. Bush, editor of Ka Leo O Ka Lahui, for the libel suit brought against him by J. L. Kaulukou. The trial will probably not come up during the present term of court.A SMALL hand-book of rules and regulations for canterers has been issued, which clearly and distinctly defines the duties of that body. The hand-book has been issued in a neat and convenient form, but the proceeding thereon is not of a first class order.Last evening while Mr. Bolster, operator at Mr. J. J. Williams' photographic gallery, was out for a ride, one of the wheels of the hack came off and precipitated the occupants to the ground. Mr. Bolster received several minor injuries and has been confined to his room to-day in consequence.Young men will please bear in mind that a pleasant company of ladies will be prepared to receive a call from them at the parlors of the Y. M.
C. A. between the hours of 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. on New Year's Day. This is a new departure in our city although quite common in the States.
It affords opportunity for a pleasant break in a day that some find a little dull, especially if away from home.
All gentlemen are cordially invited to call.

MR. TARO ANDO.

It is only occasionally that we hear of the temperance movement in Japan, but, notwithstanding, we believe the mission which advocates moderation is progressing. We see that the Tokyo Temperance Society has elected Mr. Taro Ando as President, and we feel called upon to remark that a gentleman better fitted for the leadership could not have been selected. Not long ago Mr.
Ando was diplomatic agent to the Hawaiian Islands and while there proved himself an advocate of the most ennobling principles.—Japan Gazette.

ENTERTAINING THE KING.

The S. F. Call of the 14th instant contains the following among its social events:

Consul and Mrs. McKinley invited his Majesty King Kalakaua and suite to a theater party one day last week.
After the opera the party enjoyed a sumptuous supper. Among those present were Admiral Brown, U. S. N., of the Charleston, Colonel Geo. W.
Macfarlane, Colonel Baker, Mr.
George Morse, Miss Cummings, Miss Blanche Cornwell, Miss Ida McKinley and Lieutenant Blow, U. S. N.

Among the entertainments being provided King Kalakaua during his visit may be mentioned the pleasant reception tendered him by Miss Lela last Wednesday at her school on Suter street. Among those present were: Colonel Baker, Admiral Brown, Colonel Macfarlane, Mrs.
Homer S. King, Mrs. Frances Edgerton, Miss Sol of Central America, Miss M. Dudley, Miss Garber and others.

been active in promoting the spiritual welfare of their respective flocks.Rev. H. Bingham completed a labor of many years, in the translation of the Bible into the Gilbert Islands language.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Pleasure has had her hands full.
The King gave many balls and receptions, to which brilliancy was imported by the presence of warships and of the Legislature. Many splendid wedding and other receptions have been given. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham gave a combined house warming and reception to Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Allard of San Francisco. Their Majesties inaugurated musicales at the Palace. His Excellency J. L. Stevens, United States Minister, with his wife and daughters shortly after arrival gave a grand diplomatic reception. Balls were given by the Fire Department and Co. A. of the Honolulu Rifles (since disbanded by Act of the Legislature). The Royal School, one of the oldest and best educational institutions of the country, celebrated its jubilee June 26. Minister Cummins gave a state dinner and several other entertainments.

Of public entertainers there has been no scarcity as the following list will show: F. M. Clark's Boston Specialty Company, Mikado Amateur Company, Bijou Comedy Company, John Slater the fortune teller; Miss Mollie Strumbach the vocalist, Tivoli Gaiety Company, Edwards Hopkins "Little Lord Fauntleroy," Charleston Minstrels, Hawaiian Camera Club, Nympha Minstrels, Ho-lulu Minstrels, Olive Berkley's "Lord Fauntleroy," and Kameha-meha Glee Club. Prof. Brigham has given a series of lectures to young men on "Physical Culture." Mr. F.
M. English, a visiting English gentleman, has given a series of musical and literary entertainments, and has organized an Oratorio Society of local talent. The Arion Society, after giving a delightful railway picnic, dissolved, but a new one has been started, which will pursue the original object of cultivating German and other music.

MARRIAGES.

Among the couples joining "for better, for worse" during the year were the following:
Mr. Robert B. Brenham and Miss Annie K. Dowsett.
Mr. F. W. Meier and Miss Constance Mest.
Mr. H. H. Renjes and Miss Conney.
Mr. W. O. Lackland and Miss Annie Halstead.
Dr. Dugald Campbell and Miss Mabel Rhodes.
Mr. Thos. W. Hobron and Miss Anna M. Kinney.
Dr. John S. B. Pratt and Miss Sarah Dickson (in New York).
Hon. R. D. Walbridge and Miss Bernice Parke.
Dr. Edson Lewis Hutchinson and Miss Alice Lillian Afong.
Mr. D. Nichols and Miss Lillie Nott.
Dr. Richard Jones and Miss Caroline Jane Oughton.
Mr. Geo. K. Norton and Miss Elizabeth Komolokahuehu.
Mr. T. R. Mossman and Miss Rebecca Mellish.
Mr. W. C. King and Miss Nellie Brown.
Mr. Alfred Fowler and Miss Eva Neumann.
Mr. Ward S. Bartlett and Miss Corinne A. Conley.
Mr. Jas. Hay Wodehouse, Jr., and Miss Pauhi Cleghorn.
Mr. Heinrich M. von Holt and Miss Ida E. Knudsen, (at Cambridge, Mass.)
Mr. Andrew Guild and Miss Alice Hughes.
Mr. A. G. Curtis and Miss May Broderick.

DEATHS.

The necrology of the year is not only marked by the death of notable persons in the here and yellow leaf, but will be sadly remembered for the number of young people under their prime who came to untimely death by accident. The list of elderly personages and old residents dying is as follows: Judge Edward Preston of the Supreme Court, Mrs. J.
H. Smith, John McColgan, Geo. C.
Williams (at San Francisco), Antonio G. Cunha, M. Pico, Hoiges Moller, Hon. C. H. Judd, Mrs. Rebecca Hitchcock, W. R. Seal (accident).
Rev. Edward T. Doane, Daniel R.
Vida, Timothy Reed (90), Pierre C.
A. de la Nux (accident), Mrs. Letitia M. F. Love, Mrs. Elizabeth Humphreys (90), Parker N. Makee (in Germany), Mrs. S. C. Damon (accident in United States), D. W.
Glover, Mrs. John Ema, Sister Martha of Kapiolani Home, Wm. John Brodie, Mrs. L. Desha, Chas. N.
Arnold, John L. Young, Eldress

Phoebe of St. Andrew's Priory, Mrs.
Richard Covington, Mrs. Thomas W.
Everett, and Hon. Wm. Lowthian Green. Other deaths were as follows, many being in the bloom of youth: Mrs. Henry H. Renton, John L. Blaisdell, J. N. Robinson, David Manaku, Mrs. A. A. Todd, Ernest Halstead (accident), H. W. Auld (accident in California), Mrs. H. N.
Castle (accident), Mrs. E. F. Cameron, Mrs. W. C. Lane, Mrs. C. H.
Willis (accident), Lieut. Sam. Mai-kai, A. C. Turton (in San Francisco), and Mrs. Capt. Dabel. An aged man who died here was John Miller, who was a quartermaster on the Kearsarge when she sunk the Alabama.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Besides Admirals elsewhere mentioned, Honolulu has had visits from the following notables: Mr. John Dillon and Sir Thomas Esmond, Irish delegates; Henry George, economist; Count Seyecheni, Hungary, and Count Wachtmeister, Sweden; Mons. Houle, Hawaiian Charge d'Affaires in Paris; Mr. Carl Kahler, artist; Mr. H. C. Palmer, naturalist (now here), and Chief Justice Cedercrantz of Samoa.

A large party of Raymond & Whitcomb excursionists from the United States also paid us a visit.

SPORTS AND GAMES.

The Hawaiian Baseball League gave a good season of that game, in which the Kamehameha School Club came out champions. The League has acquired fine grounds of its own, which were opened on the occasion of a recent visit of a California nine.
A magnificent perpetual challenge cup has been received by the League as a gift from Mr. A. G. Spaulding of Chicago. There have been organized the Hanauma Fishing and Yachting Club, the Heanani Boat Club, and the Honolulu Athletic Association. Visits have been had from W. S. Maltby the cyclist, also Peter Jackson, Choyinski and Ike Weir, pugilists.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

There has been no diminution in atrocious crimes, which have been rather frequent in late years. In Kona a Portuguese made a murderous assault on a countryman, doing him almost to death. Four white men were convicted of manslaughter, after a trial of seven days at Hilo, for killing a Japanese at Hamakua.
Chas. Hiram, the King's coachman, was murdered by a South Sea Islander. Lui Seymour made a sensation in the Supreme Court July 15 by pulling a pistol before Judge Dole. Augustus Turley, a steamer engineer, mysteriously disappeared on Hawaii. I. Pritchard was found dead in his house at Hana, and his native father-in-law was convicted of manslaughter for the crime, and sentenced to nine years' imprisonment.
For the killing of a Chinaman in Kona, whose body was rescued from a burning house, a fellow-countryman was tried and acquitted. A Japanese killed his wife in Kau and the jury disagreed on his trial. The murder of a Chinaman on Kauai remains a blank mystery. A Chinaman awaits trial for the murder of two persons on Maui, when the same day he attempted to kill others. T.
W. Simeona, a policeman, was killed in Kona by a leper he was trying to apprehend.
The crew of the whaling bark Jacob A. Howland, wrecked on Johnson Island, were rescued and brought to Honolulu. Cloud-bursts have caused floods on the islands of Kauai and Hawaii, attended by some loss of life and much damage to property.
A storm at Honolulu in February kept the Australian steamer outside twenty-four hours and caused the total loss of the small steamer Ewa on the reef. There was a series of fires in Honolulu in June, a life being lost in each of two cases. The prevalence of robberies at these fires led to the organization of a volunteer fire police. Insubordination broke out at the Leper Settlement, Molokai, which was tactfully suppressed. Six lives were lost out of one Portuguese household at Hamakua by the upsetting of a boat.

(For want of space the review of affairs abroad must stand over till next issue. The entire review will appear in the next WEEKLY BULLETIN.)

Western cyclones are indeed curious things. The editor of the Touville Call vouches for the fact that a cyclone blew into his office last week, threw the set type all on to the composing stone, looked up the forms, whirled them on to the elevator, jerked them clear through the press, and printed seven hundred copies before the types could get control of the machine—and the only mistake in the whole thing was the misplacing of a patent medicine "ad" that ought to have gone "top col. next reading matter." "Hiring on your cyclones," says the Call.—
